

Raising Awareness of Parents “RAP” Session

“I thought it would be easier being a parent!”

All Districts
~Thursdays~

6:30–7:30 p.m.

Feb. 2nd - York: Cotton Belt Elementary
Media Center, 1176 Black Hwy.

Feb. 9th - Fort Mill: Banks Trail Middle School Cafeteria , 1640 Banks Road

Feb. 16th - Rock Hill: Sullivan Middle School Auditorium, 1825 Eden Terrace

Feb. 23rd —Clover: Griggs Road
Elementary, 100 Griggs Road

These behaviors seem “over the top!”

Childcare available:
Elementary age children only!

PARENTING A CHALLENGING CHILD ??

Is your child or adolescent having emotional or behavioral challenges at home or in school?

Come and learn what might be going on and how you can help your child.

What can you do to help the teachers and school staff understand the situation?

Sponsored by: York County No Wrong Door

(Clover School District, Fort Mill School District, Rock Hill School District, York School District, Catawba Community Mental Health, Catawba Indian Nation, Continuum of Care, Community Net Works, Department of Juvenile Justice, Department of Social Services, Keystone Substance Abuse Services, York County Solicitor's Office, North Central Family Medical)

Betsey O'Brien,
Community Net Works
Family Organization
betseyob@comporium.net

Can't attend in your district? All sites open to York County parents!

What you don't know—can hurt you or the ones you love!